

To the FCC Commisioners, I am disturbed to learn that sinclair broadcasting is using the public airwaves to air a one sided film which disparages John Kerry's character.

Michael Moore's film was not shown on television.
Stolen Honor and films like it belong in venues other than television. The fact that a one sided campaign propaganda piece is being shown on commercial television in swing states is so obviously a misuse of Sinclairs broadcasting license. The FCC should use whatever power it has to stop such inappropriate use of the airwaves.

-Leslie Albuquerque,
private citizen from the state of California